AND THEN, "Woe—There was a scene recently in the only court sitting in which Sir Edmund Wilby, the conservative, took notice of the fact that the judge had invited the bar to sit in their own chairs. This was very foolish, and this is an incident which may mark the start of a change in the law. The Lord Chief Justice, Lord Justice, who is a scholar's expert, has been the subject of the attack to appear in court in his own. It is there in considerable number of cases of (Gannock) will suggest that it is permitted to disagree with his judgment. These are the signs of a tropical climate during these sitting and unruly.

Session of the French Chamber, has now closed, was the longest since 1914. The Chamber, it commenced on November 15th and lasted, without a break, until the 1st of January. During that period there were only one hundred and fifty sitting days. The Times, in pointing out that there is a nearly three months' gap between that there is a Parliament, has said that there is a Parliament.

THE PROPOSED A NEW PHOTOGRAPHY—THE Modern Painters and Aniques of No. 14, in Giudecca, Paris, where the artist has been writing regarding to which they have the name of Baroque, showing objects in nature, in this case, the tower there in the background, a use of dissymmetric position, as in these photos is this apparatus are, for example, and some of the photographs are, by means in relief. The movement, not only of two different positions of the subject, the first and the second, but also of the interactivity position, so that two only are necessary. The apparatus, thus very simplified, is contained in a small box, like the smallest length being 11 cm, and the two photographs are placed in the middle of each other, in the middle of the bridge. They fix the same object in two positions, and face of change of position is obtained by simple mechanics. The two photographs optically are placed in a vertical arrangement by an invariable relation, on which rests a vertical pin, terminated by a small button on the top of the lens, and a small hole in the middle of the PERMANENT INTELLIGENCE.

Tongkong, Monday, Morning.

There has been more disposition on the part of holders of drug to move, the demand for the active demand has been very small by the past two days prices have fallen a little. The following may be taken as the ruling rates, for more sellers than buyers—Patani, 8015 casks; 8250 casks, due at the end of the month, and 2330 on time to Bah Saka to arrive; Bangka, 8975 casks. Patani is expected to be needed at 8450 to 8800. Patani has about 300 casks of it, and the slower Chandora, is expected to bring over 700 and 950 casks. The latest prices in Batavia were for Oil 1/20, Siam 1/20, and Java 1/40 for new.

Further sales of rice took place on Saturday 2/60, for shipment to Japan. In Baw Oat there was a little doing, but the risk that place a few days since ended. The transshipments amounted to 115 bales Shan at 825/0 to 821/0, and 2000 bales of 35/0. There have been a few sales of goods from native lands, and consisting of copra imported from Singapore and other towns are reported by London and Amoy to be in the market were the same disposition notwithstanding. Sales include 2000 Shan T.C.O. at 227/0, Siam 2000 at 215/0, at 225/0, and 500 Patani bales, free lings at 225/0. Siam small parcels and the Shan have been done today at 21/0 premium, and a few new is reported at about 21/0, but the latter price is quite under market.

POST OFFICE NOTIFICATION.

The 1st of October has, under the sanction of the Government, been appointed as the day when Money Orders will be issued at this Office at the Agencies thereof at Shanghai, Hongkong, or all the Money Order Offices.

[illegible]

the names of the persons composing the "Carrion Co." is boundedly true.

A Receiver on stating that the Order will only through a Bank, to have the money being or withdrawing the money, in such case the Order will be so-called, none of it that Cheques are commonly when they are intended to be paid in Bank.

When an Order is presented through a receipt by any person will be sufficient, the Order is given with the name on receiving Bank, and be presented by a person known to be in the custody of a Bank.

It is the signature of the Payee of a Money Order to be affixed to the Order in the place for the purpose. If the Payee be a woman, she must sign the receipt by her name in the presence of a Witness, or give his name, with the addition of the Office, who pays the Order.

Should the Payee of a Money Order desire to be present in the Company in which this is inserted, some other Office than the one in which the Order was originally drawn, this will be granted, provided the Order be sent to the Postmaster of the Office in which he is having. In such case a note will be returned, the Commission chargeable upon will be deducted from the amount of the Order.

In the event of a Money Order being misapplied to, a duplicate will be granted on application from the Payee (containing necessary particulars, and accompanied by additional Commission) to the Office the original Order was payable.

On the receipt of a similar application, it will be given to stop payment of a Order, or to renew a lapsed Order. If the Commission in the last case is not satisfied from the amount of the new Order, Orders must be procured with the application for a new Order.

And when it is desired that any error in the name of the Remitter or Payee should be corrected, or the Operations of a Money Order be repaid to the Remitter, or that a Order should be renewed for payment in a country in which the Order was originally payable, application must be made to the Money Order Office of such Country.

Applications must be accompanied by an affidavit of the Remitter, or of an Agent or Commission, unless it have reference to a lapsed Order, in which case the Commission must be deducted from the amount of the Order.

Payments, whether of an original, or of a duplicate Order, will not be made to the Remitter until it has been ascertained that the Order has been cancelled by the Office.

in the Order were actually drawn.
Payment of an Order must be obtained from the Office of the State Comptroller of the Currency in which it was drawn; for instance, if in January, payment must be obtained from the Office of the State Comptroller of the Currency by the end of July, otherwise the Order will be lapsed, and a new Order (for which a Commission, to be deducted from the balance of the Order, will be charged) will be necessary.
If an Order is not paid before the end of the twelfth calendar month after it was drawn—for instance, if drawn in January and not paid before the end of the following January—will claim to the Treasury will be null and void, under peculiar circumstances, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency in which the Order was drawn, think proper to advise it.
After once paying a Money Order, by mistake presented, the paying Office will be liable to pay further claim. If a wrong Order, however, be made owing to negligence of any Officer of the Post Office, the Officer of the Comptroller of the Currency or Colony who the Officer is liable to make good.

No Money Order will be paid unless the item has previously expired.
Additional Rules for greater security of funds, and for the better marking of items generally will be made as occasion requires.

Should it appear that Money Orders may be made by mercantile firms, or others, either in the United Kingdom or at Hongkong, Shanghai, or Yokohama, for the transmission of sums of money, the British or Colonial Consuls at those places may be authorized to issue a certificate of interest to the Commission, if, according to the power of which they issued a time the issue of Money Orders.
